

THE BRIEFING

COOL CUCUMBERS It's rare to find a line of prepared foods in which every item is delicious. McClure's is one: The family-run company's two varieties of pickles and relish (spicy, garlic and dill), and its pair of multi-grain mustards incorporating beers from Michigan and New York, are all perfectly seasoned and textured. We suspect the fermented vegetables and ketchup from McClure's (both in the works) will be winners, too.
